LIGHT AND RAILWAY FRANCHISES

Granted Last Night by the City Council Projectors of the Enterprise Feel Hopeful.

The city council acted last night on the report of the committee appointed at a previous meeting to in- the back. He leaves two sons and four vestigate the matter of granting franchises for electric lights and electric railway from Bryan to Col-

The proposed ordinances, as heretofore printed in the Eagle, except the donation of a block of ground, were passed as amended according to the forecast printed in the Eagle last Sunday morning, with the exception that Dallas street throughout its length was excepted from the streets over which franchise was granted for the railway.

It was also provided that the company to whom the franchises were granted or their assigns must begin work within six months from this date, and that the road and light plant must be completed within one year from the time work is begun. else the franchises are void.

The franchises as granted by the council are satisfactory to the citizens' committee with the exception of cutting out Dallas street south of the intersection of Baker street. Baker street intersects Dallas street at Ernest F. Parks' residence, and the committee wanted the privilege of getting out of town on Dallas street, so as to present the proposition in the most attractive light possible to capitalists, in order to get the most favorable proposition possible for the benefit of the town.

The committee in whose names the franchises are granted expressed themselves to The Eagle representative as being pleased with the prospects now, as they believe that in the main the people of Bryan will approve of it, and the success of the the people of Bryan.

TOM PINCKNEY DEAD.

One More Name Has Been Added to the Hempstead Death List.

Hempstead, Tex., April 26.-Tom Pinckney, who was shot twice in the affair at the court house Monday night, dled at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. Congressman Pinckney was shot four times. Captain Browne was shot in daughters

After Mills was shot he said: "I didn't do anything wrong. I don't see why they shot me." He then expired. Hulen, Sheriff Adjutant General Matthews and ex-Policeman Busher came down from Austin at 4 a. m., Tuesday. General Hulen was notified by telephone of the tragedy.

special train from Houston brought Sheriff Anderson and State Rangers Timberlake, Smith, Ransom and Randall. They were under orders from General Hulen. They visited the court room. It presented an upheaved appearance. Chairs were overturned, seats and benches were broken, blood splotches here and there on the floor and the walls were marked with bullet Citizens congregated and talked over the affair. It is hard to get any two of them to tell the same story. Each has his own version. It is said that young Browne was in the rage of a tiger during the shooting, and that when it was over he did not use very choice language in expressing himself.

The rangers fear no further trouble but will remain a few days.

It was impossible to see more than the smallest part of the affray at one time, as the smoke was so dense. After the firing had ceased and the smoke had cleared, it was found that John M. Pinckney was lying in the throes of death at a point on the opposite side of the room from where he had been sitting during the progress of the meet-

Captain Browne had advanced to a position very near the place where Pinckney had formerly sat, and was lying dead on one of the benches.

T. D. Pinckney had moved in some thing of a semi-circle, and was found mortally wounded at a point behind the one occupied by him when the affray began.

R. E. Tompkins had about recovered from the effects of the blow on the side of the head, and was suffering slightly from a very light flesh wound in the left cheek.

Young Browne after the shooting was being held in the aisle by several men. It seems that he had emptied his revolver and had gone out to secure another and was returning to the affray. It was found that he had been shot in the abdomen, the ball only ploughed along just beneath the skin and his wound is not serious.

J. E. Mills had been fatally shot, but had been assisted down stairs and was undertaking depends entirely upon found in a dying condition in the lower hall.

An internal hemorrhage was the immediate cause of the end.

T. D. Pinckney had been shot twice in the small of the back, both balls ranging through the intestines. Hope was at no time held out for his recovery, though he survived Mr. Mills by three hours.

It has been a very trying ordeal for the sister who survivs the Pinckney brothers, and it is indeed a sad sight to see her sitting weeping between the corpses of her idols. John M. Pinckney had never married, but lived a life of perfect devotion to this maiden sister, Miss Sue Pinckney. Young Browne and R. E. Tompkins have been placed under arrest.

LOSSES OVERSTATED.

Not Near the Figures That Japanese Have Published.

DENIALS GIVEN OUT.

According to Russian Chief of Staff the Reports Sent Out Relative to Battle of Mukden Have Been Exaggerated.

Gunshu Pass, April 26.-An exact ptement of the losses on all categories in the battle of Mukden from Feb. 19 to March 14, compiled by the general staff, shows that the casualties were greatly overstated in earlier reports. Statements from Japanese sources indicating wholesale capture of prisoners, enormous booty and cannon, are now denied. In reality it appears the Russian losses amounted to two generals, who were captured, 1985 staff and other officers, and 87,677 men, of whom the greatest part, about 55,000 were wounded. In evacuating Mukden and retreating to the northward the Russians lost thirty-two guns, of which three were mortars, three old type field guns with piston action and twenty-six quick-fire guns. Of the siege artillery every gun and all the ammunition carts were sent north two days before the retreat began. General Karkevitch, the chief of staff, calculates that other losses aside from wounded were as follows: 15,000 killed, 7000 to 8000 known to have been captured and 10,000 to 12,000 missing, of whom several thousand were drivers sanitary and commissary corps em-ployes and other ono-combatants. A s and other ono-combatants. A large number were slightly wounded and returned to ranks, many even resorting to deception in order to leave the hospitals.

This would indicate that the extent of the Japanese victory and the disorder of the Russian retreat have been exaggerated and that the spirit of the Russian army is still strong and that troops not demoralized.

MARRIAGE OF MISS WEBB.

Weds Dr. Daniel Scott Schenck of Safford, Arizona, Last Evening.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Edge in the southern part of the city was the scene of a brilliant and happy marriage last night at 9 o'clock, while Dr. Dan-iel Scott Schenck of Safford, Ariz-ona, and Miss Hattie Webb of this city stood before Dr. George B. Butler, pastor of the First Baptist church, and responded to the vows which made them man and

The reception hall, parlors and library were exquisitely decorated in pink and white, with roses and ferns in profusion. Four white columns supported a bower of smilax, roses and maidenhair ferns in the back parlor, where the wedding was solemnized. Preceding the ceremony Miss Bertha Roberts sang an appropriate selection with marked sweetness. Mrs. W. S. Wilson played the wedding march as the young couple advanced unattended from the hall through the front parlor to the charming alcove where the minister stood. "Hearts and Flowers," an instrumental number, made a soft accompaniment to the words of the ceremony.

Relatives and a few friends were invited by Mr. and Mrs. Edge, uncle of the bride, to witness the marriage celebration, and upon arrival were met in the hall by Misses Mabel Zimmerman and Louise Harris, and welcomed in the front parlor by Mrs. Nellie Ballard, Mrs. Powell Winter and Miss Nellie Rohde.

Following the ceremony congratulations were showered upon the bride and groom, who were the recipients of many handsome wedding gifts, and of messages from distant friends.

At a seasonable hour the guests were invited to partake of a salad course followed by ice cream molded in the form of bride's roses, and angelfood.

The bride's dress is of embroidered chiffon over liberty satin with real lace. She carried bride's roses.

Her traveling suit is a handsome navy blue silk with hat and gloves

The bride is a daughter of Capt. J. C. Webb of San Antonio, a sister of Mr. Frank Webb, and a grand-daughter of the late Mrs. J. Zulch of this city, by whom she was reared. She was educated in the Bryan high school and the North Texas Female College at Sherman, and is a young lady of superior at-
